Inclusion Criteria

In order for an event to be included in the data it must meet all six inclusion criteria.

1. The communiques must claim responsibility for an act of sabotage, vandalism, or other symbolic, clandestine action involving property destruction or theft.
    a. In the case where it is difficult to determine the line separating an "action report/report back" from a "claim of responsibility," researchers will do their best to determine if the posting is intended to either simply announce that the action has occurred, or to claim responsibility for that action, even if that claim is implied and not explicitly stated. Thus "action reports or report backs" are EXCLUDED, and "claims of responsibility" are INCLUDED even if the author's role in the action is implied and not explicitly stated.
    b. INCLUDE clandestine action as part of a public event (e.g., spraypainted vandalism of police cars done during a demonstration/event and claimed via a communique[2]).
2. The action must be motivated by a socio-political agenda.
3. The language of the post has to contain some personal pronouns (e.g., we, I, us, our).
4. The communique must be hosted on a noblogs.org-located website.
5. The action reportedly occurred January 1, 2020, to December 31, 2024.[3]
6. The action reportedly occurred in the United States.

Exclusion Criteria

An event would be excluded if it meets any of the four exclusion criteria.

1. The action occurred outside the US.
2. The action occurred outside the study's date range.
3. The document is not a claim of responsibility (e.g., releasing of personally identifiable information, poetry/art sharing, news of an action/action reports.)
4. The action claimed is not a clandestine act of property destruction or theft but is more akin to a public event (e.g., demonstration, march)

[2] For example: https://phlanticap.noblogs.org/direct-actions-at-philly-pride/#more-6814
[3] This would include instances which occurred in December 2024, but were reported in 2025

These sites were located on the Noblogs network (via "site:noblogs.org no blogs") but fall outside of the inclusion criteria. Typically, this is for a few reasons, namely:

1. The site does not feature communications or claims of responsibility,
2. The sites includes communiques, but they are for actions outside the US,
3. The website hosts communiques outside of our date range or is otherwise inactive, or
4. The website is not in English.
